

Support this uniquely inspiring story

Dear Supporter

We would like to invite you to support this historically important documentary project. We are registered with the AbaF's Australia Cultural Fund to enable donations from individuals and businesses. Through AbaF's Australia Cultural Fund you can receive a tax deduction for your gift.

Sally McLean – Filmmaker

Sally McLean is an experienced producer/director/writer in theatre and film with a strong television production background from her time working for the BBC, Endemol Southern Star and Fremantle Media.

She is currently working on her landmark documentary television directorial debut project Franz Stampfl: The Man Behind the Miracle Mile – the true story of the world's greatest athletics coach – and is seeking donations to contribute to travel and production costs for filming in the UK and Australia.

Warm wishes and thanks,

Sally McLean

Thank you for supporting inspiring arts projects through AbaF's Australia Cultural Fund.
